UIAA CONDITIONS FOR INTERNATIONAL ICE CLIMBING COMPETITION LICENSES

1. OBLIGATIONS OF COMPETITORS

By applying for an International License the competitor acknowledges and accepts the rules and anti-doping policy and procedure of the UIAA Ice Climbing Commission and commits him or herself to act according to these rules and procedures.

1.1 In connection with anti-doping procedures the competitor:

- Refrains from using drugs and other prohibited substances or encouraging others to make use of drugs or other prohibited substances;
- Expressly consents to submit to all methods of testing (blood, urine, gases, etc.) and any medical, clinical, or biological testing conducted either out of competition or at a competition by the Member Association, the UIAA Ice Climbing Commission, the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) and/or their appointed testing authority for the purpose of revealing if a prohibited substance is present in his or her body or to reveal the possible use of prohibited substances or methods;
- Expressly acknowledges the right of WADA to perform out-of-competition tests for the UIAA.
- For the purpose of out-of-competition testing undertakes to inform his or her Member Association in advance of the places he or she intends to train;
- Expressly acknowledges the right of the UIAA to join as a party to any disciplinary proceedings or arbitration in connection with alleged doping offences.

1.2 Competitors applying for an International License also acknowledge and accept that:

- In UIAA Ice Climbing Competitions they understand and abide by the regulations and rules of the sport and observe the principles of good sportsmanship;
 - Accept, subject to the official appeal procedure, the decisions of the official judges without question or protestation and exercise self-restraint at all times;
 - Treat other competitors, officials and others involved in the practice of the sport with full and due respect at all times, both during and outside a competition.
 - Safety is a primary concern at Ice Climbing Competitions nonetheless a certain risk of personal injury or death remains;
 - Holders of International Licenses accept the risks of participation and are responsible for their own actions which should take into account relevant circumstances such as changing weather and snow/ice conditions.
- To take part in Ice Climbing competitions it is necessary to be medically fit and have valid liability and accident insurance.

OBLIGATIONS OF UIAA MEMBER ASSOCIATIONS

A Member Association whose competitors apply for an International License must:

- Ensure competitors (and or the parents or legal guardians of those under 18 years) are aware of, understand and accept their obligations and the risks and responsibilities of taking part in ice climbing competitions;
- Maintain an up-to-date list of contact details and addresses of holders of International Licenses and information on their training venues and to make these details available to UIAA Ice Climbing Commission and WADA for the purpose of out of competition testing (N.B. the contact details of the Member Association are not acceptable as the contact details of the competitor);

- Immediately inform the UIAA Ice Climbing Commission of any positive result of a doping test and commence a disciplinary proceeding against any competitor who has been tested positive for doping and to inform UIAA Ice Climbing Commission about such proceedings;

- Ensure all its applicants for International Licenses have liability and accident insurance covering ice climbing competitions and are medically fit to take part.

NOTES ON UIAA INTERNATIONAL ICE CLIMBING COMPETITION LICENSE

1. Objective

To allow high-level competitors to participate in official international events.

2. Obtaining the license

This form must duly be completed and signed by the Competitor and the UIAA Member Association. Once the UIAA Office receives written approval of the Competitor as well as the payment, the UIAA Office announces online the status "approved". Forms without the consent and the signature of the applying Federation, the competitor, and the legal guardian if the Competitor is under 18 years old, shall not be taken into consideration.

3. Format of the international license

The international license is this document duly signed and received by the UIAA Office in Bern. The competitor will then have his/her name on a list made public for every competition organizer to have immediate access to. Validity of each license expires at the end of the respective calendar year.

4. Price

The international license is sold by the UIAA to the Member Association. The price of the UIAA International Ice Climbing Competition License for the 2023-2024 season is EUR 50. The Member Association is responsible for selling the UIAA international license to the competitor. This payment must be done in Euros (EUR), online or on site of first competition and free of charge for the UIAA. In case payments have not been made prior to the season, the Competitor will be asked to pay the license fee in cash upon sign-in at their first event.

5. Application

All competitors (including youth categories competitors) competing in International UIAA Ice Climbing Competitions are requested to be in possession of an International License issued by the UIAA. Youth Competitors competing in Youth categories only, must not pay the EUR 50 fee.

6. Authority

An International License is compulsory for all official events. Those competitors for whom their belonging Federations have not applied or approved for an International License, will NOT be allowed to compete in UIAA approved events.

7. Data Protection

The UIAA Ice Climbing Commission will only use the data from International License for the purpose of anti-doping procedures, events organization and transmitting information on Ice climbing.
